AMM to tour Midwestern Region

Annual municipal visits give officials chance to voice concerns

July 27, 2006 – From July 31 to August 2, representatives from the Association of Manitoba Municipalities (AMM) will meet with Councils from several Midwestern Region municipalities to discuss issues the AMM board has been working on in recent months, and to hear from the Councils regarding the issues facing these regions.

“Municipal visits are important to the AMM because they offer us the chance to meet our members from a specific region and communicate on a more individual level with them. We are looking forward to meeting with some of the officials the Midwestern Region, and to hearing some of the concerns within their communities,” said AMM President Ron Bell.

AMM Representatives at the meetings will include Bell, Urban Vice-President Lorne Boguski, Rural Vice-President Garry Wasylowski, and Executive Director Joe Masi. Also attending will be the AMM Directors representing the Region – Reeve Roger Wilson, Midwestern Rural Director, and Mayor Shirley Kalyniuk, Midwestern Urban Director.

Next week’s meetings include visits with the following municipalities:
