During the recent FCM Annual Conference in Ottawa, Goertzen was elected to represent Canada's 18 provincial-territorial associations (PTA).

"With more municipal issues being federal-provincial in nature, it is increasingly important that the municipal associations are strongly represented at the FCM executive level," he said.

Goertzen will also be working closely with Councillor Jenny Gerbasi, City of Winnipeg, who became FCM President during the conference.

Free Workshops - How to Write your Accessibility Plan

During the month of July, staff from the Community Places Program and Recreation and Regional Services will be holding workshop sessions throughout the province, free-of-charge, for municipal staff who are creating Accessibility Plan or Customer Service Standards.

Community Places Facilities Consultants will be available to answer questions, help with your plan's technical issues and arrange on-site meetings to discuss your project.

Bring your whole project file with you. Planning, do's and don'ts, best practices and anything else that will make the process more manageable and successful will be discussed.

These workshops are also a unique way for you to network and share ideas with others who are also planning.

Call to reserve a spot by contacting the Community Places Program at 204-945-0502. See the sidebar for a list of dates and locations.
