Thank you Letter from Nova Scotia Federation of Municipalities (NSFM)

NOVA SCOTIA FEDERATION OF MUNICIPALITIES

A Letter of Thanks from Nova Scotia Federation of Municipalities

On behalf of everyone at NSFM, thank you for reaching out across the miles to send your comforting words.

Nova Scotia is a small province, our communities and people are connected, and our family roots run deep.

We recognize the names of the victims, know the important roles they played in their communities and to their families, and share the pain the survivors are all feeling.

We have collectively been shattered to the core, and our hearts and prayers are with the souls lost, their families and friends, with our first responders and everyone else left to deal with the aftermath of this horrific event.

As our flags fly at half-mast and we struggle to find ways to make sense of all this, I wanted to reach out to say how comforting it is to have the support of so many across the country.

Your words make us stronger so we can shoulder the aftermath of this tragedy, and we can stand strong for our communities.

Sincerely,
Mayor Pam Mood,
President of NSFM
