On April 26 President Chris Goertzen took part in a news conference regarding the intake launch for community development projects and initiatives. Applications are now being accepted for the Community Places Program, Hometown Manitoba, Neighbourhoods Alive! and Partner 4 Growth.

The AMM will now be involved in the evaluation process for community development programs. "Community development projects are essential to promoting economic development and sustainability in our local communities, our regions, and our entire province," said President Goertzen. "The AMM is pleased to have an expanded role on the selection committee and we look forward to evaluating what are sure to be very worthy applications to these programs."

Application deadline is May 28.

Manitoba Scholarship and Bursary Initiative Consultation Invitation

Manitoba Education and Training (MET) is undertaking extensive consultations with key stakeholders to solicit innovative ideas on how the Manitoba Scholarship and Bursary Initiative (MSBI) can be further aligned with labour market needs and further enhanced to bring success to both students and industry.

What is MSBI?

MSBI is intended to encourage private donations for bursaries and scholarships by providing matching funds; assisting students that are in financial need with bursaries and other needs-based awards. MSBI also promotes scholarship and bursary programs with strong labour market outcomes and employability potential.

Canadian Institute of Planners 2018 National Conference

The Canadian Institute of Planners' (CIP) and the Manitoba Institute of Professional Planners (MPPI) invites you to their upcoming national conference SOUL 2018, July 19-22 in Winnipeg. Join planners, administrators and public officials from across Canada to reflect on the 'Soul' that goes into creating dynamic and thriving environments, communities, and spaces. The conference features 50+ hands-on workshops, concurrent sessions and learning tours on urban and rural planning topics, including:

Workshops and Learning Tours

- "Got Vacant Spots Downtown? Revitalization Ideas to Remake Your Community"
Led by keynote speaker, Zachary Mannheimer (Click here for an interview with Zachary about creative placemaking in small towns)
- "Growing Small-Town Soul: How rapid growth rural communities preserve their history, welcome newcomers, and build complete communities"

Sessions

- "Forgotten SOUL of our Rural Communities - The Fight to Stay Alive!"
- "From Application to Approval: Can Municipalities Use the Subdivision Regulation to Foster Soulful Places"
- "Building Inclusive Communities: Planning for Rural Migration into Northern Ontario"
- "Layer by Layer: A New Spatial Data WebApp for Manitoba"
- "Zoning for Cannabis"
- "Partnering for Growth: How Five Saskatchewan Municipalities Found Shared Ground"
- "Dealing with Odour Nuisance in Rural Communities"

On top of that, you will have the opportunity to canoe down the historic Seine River, attend a private street party in the historic Exchange District, and take in the sights and sounds of the Winnipeg Fringe Festival. If this sounds like the perfect opportunity to generate ideas and network with friends and colleagues from across the country, we hope you will join us July 19-22 in Winnipeg!

Registration is now open!
